

Focus Points

"Focus Points" are short activities that draw students into the lesson. They take only a few minutes to do. Many can be used as quick-start activities to engage the students and focus their attention at the beginning of class. Others may fit well during the lesson to reinforce a point and drive it home. Still others may serve as good wrap-up activities. "Focus Points" come in many forms. Choose and use them as you see fit.

For example, The Hezekiah Story can be used:

- To introduce your studies of King Hezekiah,
- To review the events of his life and reign, or
- As a Bible learning center activity for the children to do during your studies of King Hezekiah.
