

Focus Points

"Focus Points" are short activities that draw students into the lesson. They take only a few minutes to do. Many can be used as quick-start activities to engage the students and focus their attention at the beginning of class. Others may fit well during the lesson to reinforce a point and drive it home. Still others may serve as good wrap-up activities. "Focus Points" come in many forms. Choose and use them as you see fit.

Focus Point – When the Assyrian Comes into Our Land

Where did it happen?
Map

Place the numbers next to the correct locations on the map below. How many can you do without looking in a Bible atlas?
