

Focus Points

"Focus Points" are short activities that draw students into the lesson. They take only a few minutes to do. Many can be used as quick-start activities to engage the students and focus their attention at the beginning of class. Others may fit well during the lesson to reinforce a point and drive it home. Still others may serve as good wrap-up activities. "Focus Points" come in many forms. Choose and use them as you see fit.

This quick activity focuses on key words and names that come up in the study of King Hezekiah and connects these things with him. Give your students three or four minutes to unscramble the answers and then go over the questions together.
